APRIL 2015

Human Sex Trafficking

Sunday, April 19
Interfaith Works
1010 James St.
Syracuse, NY
3:00 - 5:00

NOTE: New Meeting Location!
There is plenty of parking behind the building

Human Sex Trafficking is a problem all over the world, in every U.S. state and in our own community.

All women are invited to join WTB at *InterFaith Works in Syracuse as we watch a short Documentary, "Chosen" to hear the stories of young people who have been hurt by this atrocity. We will then hear from a panel from our own community who will speak to the issue of sex trafficking, and what can be done to stop it.

BOOK CLUB

Monday

April 27

7:00 - 9:00

The meeting will be held at the home of Patti McGuire.

The House of the Spirits

by Isabel Allende

In one of the most important and beloved Latin American works of the twentieth century, Isabel Allende weaves a luminous tapestry of three generations of the Trueba family, revealing both triumphs and tragedies. The House of the Spirits is an enthralling saga that spans decades and lives, twining the personal and the political into an epic novel of love, magic, and fate. (amazon.com)

Monday, May 18, 7 to 9 pm read either of these: God Has a Dream: a Vision of Hope for our Time by Desmond Tutu or God is Not a Christian and Other Provocations by Desmond Tutu at the home of Bunny Hannum.
(call Jennifer, 633-2817, if you can't get a copy)

The Belle of Amherst

A One -Woman Play
by
WILLIAM LUCE

The Belle of Amherst is a one-woman play by William Luce.

Based on the life of poet Emily Dickinson from 1830 to 1886, and set in her Amherst, Massachusetts home, the 1976 play makes use of her work, diaries, and letters to recollect her encounters with the significant people in her life – family, close friends, and acquaintances. It balances the agony of her seclusion with the brief bright moments when she was able to experience some joy.

It's being performed at the Redhouse <http://events.visitsyracuse.org/view/8674/belle-of-amherst> the Friday and Saturday after Easter, April 10 and 11 at 8:00pm

You are invited

Sewing with Refugees: The final sewing session of the 2014-2015 school year began on April 2 and will end on May 28. Visitors are always welcome to stop by to see what we do at 501 Park Street on Syracuse's NorthSide on Thursdays between noon and 2:30 when the public schools are in session. Donations of sewing machines, fabric, thread, and notions are always appreciated. These are either used in class, or given to the students on the last day of each session. Since the doors of the building are locked, call my cell at 345-9217 and I will run up and open for you. Call Jennifer at 633-2817 for more information.

Membership

You support WTB by becoming a member. You pay dues if you can afford to. You are committed to making our community, our country, and our world a better place for all people. Religious and cultural diversity are important to you, even if you can't attend our programs. You help educate yourself and others about the variety of cultures and religious groups that call CNY home. You foster mutual respect and promote dialogue to combat fear, intolerance and extremism. And you enjoy the activities that introduce you to other women who believe as you do and build lasting friendships.

Listserv

If you are receiving this newsletter via email, then you are on the WTB listserv. That means that you have expressed interest in our many activities, local, national, and international. You are curious about interfaith activities and want to be informed.

Please consider stepping up to the next level of commitment by becoming a WTB member.
