

Women Transcending Boundaries

Monthly Newsletter

Bringing women of faith together after 9/11

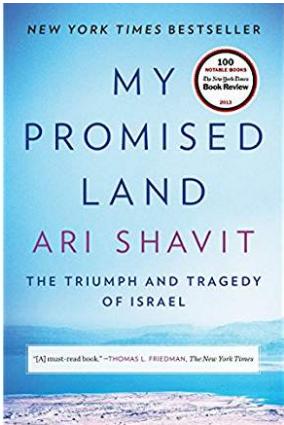

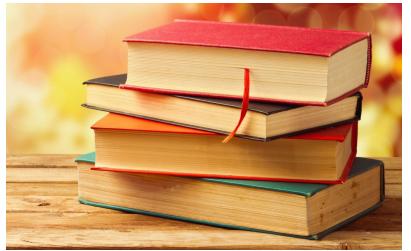

All information is also available on our Web site www.wtb.org

October 2018

EASTERN FARMWORKERS ASSOCIATION
Sunday, October 21
3:00 - 5:00
Jowonio
3049 E. Genesee St.

The October meeting--at which women representing Eastern Farm Workers Association (volunteers, clients who help with food distributions and more, SU and ESF students who often volunteer and migrant workers) will come together with us in a dialogue circle. They will share information informally, answer our questions and make available their calendar (for sale) and other handouts.

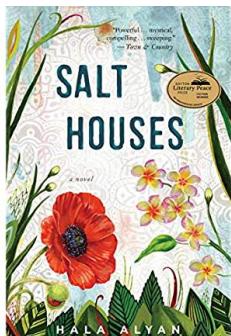

BOOK CLUB
Monday, October 22, 2018
7:00 - 9:00 pm

Call Jennifer at 315-633-2817 for the location of the monthly book club meeting. The location changes every month.

My Promised Land

The Triumph and Tragedy of Israel
by Ari Shavit

A groundbreaking and authoritative examination of Israel by one of the most influential columnists writing about the Middle East today, My Promised Land has been called 'the best book to have been written on the subject [of Israel]' by Simon Schama

Monday, December 3
Salt Houses by Hala Alyan

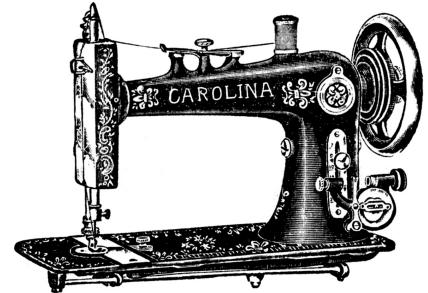

On the eve of her daughter Alia's wedding, Salma reads the girl's future in a cup of coffee dregs. She sees an unsettled life for Alia and her children; she also sees travel, and luck. While she chooses to keep her predictions to herself that day, they will all soon come to pass when the family is uprooted in the wake of the Six-Day War of 1967.

The first book is from the Israeli perspective, the second Palestinian. We expect lively conversations. Join us for both. Call Jennifer 315-633-2817 for location of meetings. (Book Club usually meets the fourth Monday of the month. Because of the holidays, the November meeting is skipped and the December meeting is early.)

Refugee Sewing Classes

The current class is composed of students from Burma, Nepal, South Sudan, and Congo. This time each student has good command of English, so they are making rapid progress and choosing projects that fit their family and work needs. You are always welcome to stop by to visit our class Thursdays starting at 12:15 p.m. when the city schools are in session.

We have plenty of donations at this time (and limited storage space), but if you have sewing related items that you wish to donate, I can give you suggestions of worthwhile non-profit groups that make items for hospitalized children, foster children, homeless men, disabled veterans, people in nursing homes, etc. Nothing should ever go to waste, so please call me if you are purging items of your own or of someone who can no longer use them. Jennifer 315-633-2817

Syracuse Federation of Women's Clubs is having their next meeting on October 18, 2018 at Barbagallo's Restaurant at 5:30pm, 6344 E Malloy Rd E Syracuse.. The guest speaker is Mike Phelan, the Outreach Coordinator for Syracuse University's Camp Kesem. Founded in 2012 at Syracuse University, Camp Kesem is a nationwide Community Organization driven by passionate student leaders that supports children through and beyond their parents cancer. For Reservations, which must be made by October 15th, call Judy McLeod at 315-457-4919.

October Schmai

Where? Mellovelo Cafe
790 Canal Street

When? Wed., Oct 17

Time? 6:00